

DAILY LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XVIII.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 24, 1861.

NUMBER 7.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

PRICES OF DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY.

One Year.	$5 00
Six Months.	3 00
Three Months.	1 50
One Month.	1 00
One No Subscriptions taken for less than one month.	75

UNION DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR STATE TREASURER,

JAS. H. GARRARD.

UNION NOMINATIONS FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

1ST DISTRICT IN LOUISVILLE—COMPOSED OF TENTH AND FIRST WARDS.

JOHN G. BEEMAN.

2ND DISTRICT—COMPOSED OF SECOND, THIRD AND FOURTH WARDS.

NATHANIEL WOLFE.

4TH DISTRICT—COMPOSED OF THE FIFTH AND SIXTH WARDS.

JOSHUA TEVIS.

4TH DISTRICT—COMPOSED OF THE EIGHTH AND NINTH WARDS.

W. P. BOONE.

THE LEGISLATURE FROM JEFFERSON COUNTY.

JOHN H. HARNEY.

The uneasy men, who will not call themselves Secessionists, were greatly elated at the news lately brought by telegraph, but they have, perhaps, by this time, taken a cooler view of the case. This is not a page in the history of the contest, and settles nothing; it postpones only the progress of the Union army. They have had a week or ten days by one of the acts of war. The Union men are far more sanguine. They see no glory in the career of misguided men, nor decide readily in single encounters, which is only a check, not even a victory. Another day or two may turn the tide, and dash all the hopes built on such light material to the ground. The accounts now show that the heat was not due to the valor of the Confederates, but to a panic, without any adequate cause. The other side is liable to some accidents, and may meet the same sort of reverse. One feels awkward to fall down to the cellar after being elevated to the house top. Better keep cool, and not jump, until you are out of the woods.

The Secessionists down in the Jack Purchase have established a reign of terror. All accounts from them confirm the truth of this statement. They are proscribing, violent and vindictive. A Union man is constantly in danger; not that many sympathizers with this movement would engage in this lawless course; but some will, and they are unrestrained. These leading men say the Purchase will succeed, and, of course, they will be opposed to co-operation. If the civil authorities did their duty, such outrages could not exist; but the civil authorities seem to be particularly merciful. Certainly, these lawless outrages, and threats, and insults, should not be tolerated in a civilized community, and should produce no good to any cause.

ORDER CONCERNING FUGITIVE SLAVES.—The following important order has just been issued:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT AT WASHINGTON, July 17, 1861.
General Order No. 33.
Fugitive slaves will, under no pretext whatever, be permitted to reside, or be in any way harbored, in the quarters and camps of the troops serving in this Department. Neither will such slaves be allowed to accompany troops on the march.

Commanders of troops will be held responsible for a strict observance of this order.

By command of Brigadier-General Mansfield.

THEODORE TALBOT,
Assistant-Adjutant-General.

Public Speaking.—Gov. Merritt will address the people of Jefferson county at the following times and places, at 2 o'clock in the evening of each day:

At Johnstown, in the Lower Ponds, on Thursday, the 25th inst.

At Woods', Friday, the 26th.

At the Cross Roads, Saturday, the 27th.

At Hays' Spring, Monday, the 29th.

At Jeffersontown, Tuesday, the 30th.

At Fisherville, Wednesday, the 31st.

At Boston, Thursday, August 1st.

At Middletown, Friday, the 2d.

At Gillman's, Saturday, the 3d.

The above appointments have been made by Governor Merritt.

Mr. Harney, the candidate of the Union party, will meet Gov. Merritt at these appointments and divide time with him.

Col. W. B. Read, candidate for the Senate in the district composed of the counties of Larue, Nelson, and Spencer, will speak at the following times and places, to-wit:

At Mount Eden, Spence county, July 24.

At Chaplin, Nelson county, July 24.

W. C. Whitaker and J. P. Sparks will address the people at Campbellsburg, July 24th, at 2 o'clock p. m. W. S. Pryor is invited to attend.

P. S. Sparks and W. S. Pryor will address the people of Jericho on Saturday, July 27th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Our blind friend, Mr. Morrison Headly, will address his fellow-citizens in defense of Union principles at the following times and places, and at the hour of two o'clock each day:

At Mt. Washington, in the Lower Ponds, on Thursday, the 25th inst.

At Woods', Friday, the 26th.

At the Cross Roads, Saturday, the 27th.

At Hays' Spring, Monday, the 29th.

At Jeffersontown, Tuesday, the 30th.

At Fisherville, Wednesday, the 31st.

At Boston, Thursday, August 1st.

At Middletown, Friday, the 2d.

At Gillman's, Saturday, the 3d.

The above appointments have been made by Governor Merritt.

Mr. Harney, the candidate of the Union party, will meet Gov. Merritt at these appointments and divide time with him.

Col. W. B. Read, candidate for the Senate in the district composed of Casey, Garrard and Lincoln. The other two counties have not yet. We understand there is another man, who is an aspirant for the office. The Union men of the district must manage their own affairs their own way. They will, doubt, nominate and elect a first-rate man.

Mr. Crittenden offered two or three resolutions the other day in Congress. We act the exact wording before us; but the substance:

Crittenden, of Kentucky, asked leave to submit resolutions declaring the present war had been forced upon the Unionists of the Southern States, now in arms against the Government of the United States; that in this national emergency, Congress, banishing all feelings of fear and resentment, will recollect only duty to their country; that the war is waged for conquest or subjugation, or with the rights and equality under it unpaired; that as soon as these objects shall be accomplished, the war ought to cease.

The telegraph, of yesterday, tells us that the resolution passed—the first—by 122 to 2 nays. The other resolutions passed by 117 toes and 2 nays.

ROUBLE IN THE CAMP.—A correspondent of the Atlanta Southern Confederacy, writing from Fairfax Courthouse, Va., July 1st, says:

The truth is, the Virginians are rather slow coaches, except when they are in pursuit of an office."

The St. Louis Democrat has learned that the Hon. Thos. L. Anderson and Hon. J. S. Green have abandoned the Secession cause in Missouri.

The Union men of Henry county will have a mass meeting at Port Royal on the 25th of July. Union men everywhere are invited.

Boone county returns arrived yesterday. They areas count.

In one of his Washington letters, Willis will be the note of admiration 100,000 miles in length, commonly called the comet's tail.

The letter was dated the 24th of June, and post-marked the 16th of July. Ah—May—

Eagle, July 20th.

We give the following extract from a letter from Logan county. It is of the same tenor with several from near the Tennessee line:

The Union men here are up and doing to redeem old Logan from treason in the August election. Led on by the high-toned and patriotic Bailey, in spite of the Russellville clique, they expect to succeed. The enemy are bold, vaunting and rampant. For a few days after the election they were down to the south. But soon the Kenntucky troops commenced going to Tennessee by hundreds, and they obtained a chuckling promise from many of the officers that they would soon be back, they have not only taken fresh courage, but have become more defiant than ever. The predictions now are that the day of reckoning is near at hand in this county, by which they try to menace Union men and deter the timid and wavering from opposing their opinions and voting their sentiments. I live near the Tennessee line and close to the railroad, and from the movements of the Secessionists, the tone of expression, the deep interest taken by them in the transportation of troops to Tennessee, their hints and even spoken threats that those troops will come back, force me to conviction on my mind that the rebels are here to stay.

Resolved, That in our opinion, it is the duty of this Senatorial District to meet in convention, in Liberty, Casey county, Ky., on Saturday, the 27th day of July, for the purpose, if possible, of selecting the ablest, truest and most efficient Union man that the district affords as a candidate for the State Senate.

Resolved, That the object in fixing on Liberty is to avoid, as far as possible, the appearance of partiality, as Garrard and Lincoln counties have each aspirants, and Casey has none.

Resolved, That while we have high regard for the worthy gentlemen who are aspirants for the Senate, we do not consider them equal to the task of representing the whole State. See the attention of the press at Louisville has been somewhat directed to this thing. Let me admonish you to treat this not as an idle threat or idle report, but as a fearful and stubborn fact, fraught with the most imminent peril to Kentucky. Let the Democrats, Journal and the loyal press throughout the State keep the people wide awake and fully warned of this reasonable conspiracy and wicked design to force us into a movement that they utterly abhor.

Resolved, That we will freely express our preference, we are ready and willing to consult and co-operate with the Union men and delegates from Lincoln and Garrard counties, and to aid in the election of any good and true Union man, and to support him should he receive the nomination of said convention.

Resolved, That Messrs. Hiram Thomas, G. B. Gibbons, E. Coffey, Alfred Goode, James R. Dunn, Joel Sweeney, Ambrose Ward, Job Sweeney, John Humphrey, Anderson Riggsay, Wm. B. Cundiff, and E. J. Deane be appointed delegates for Casey county to the convention.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Louisville Democrat and Journal and the Frankfort Com-

Mercantile.

JOHN P. TATE, Chairman.

JOHN SWENY, Secretary.

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARVEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—Eastside Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS IN THE COUNTRY.
Our friends in the country remitting odd change will please send us no denomination
of stamps except the THREE CENT STAMP.
We can use a moderate share of these.
Stamps of any other denomination will be returned.

UNCURRENT MONEY.—All depreciated
money received for subscriptions will be taken only at its current rates by the brokers.

Daily Democrat to the country one year, in advance, $5.

We are daily indebted to the American Letter Express Company for late files of Southern papers.

The Evening News has an unusual demand. Many of the subscribers to the morning Democrat are ordering the
"News" to their address.

FATAL AFFRAY.—At Jeffersonville, Phillips county, Arkansas, last Saturday morning, William Jenkins killed Hiram Law in a street fight.

The examination of Henry Green, watchman, for killing John W. Tompkins, was postponed in the police court until the morning of the 24th inst.

ATTENTION, MARION RIFLE ZOUAVES.—
You are commanded to meet at your armory
on Wednesday morning, July 24, at half-past eight o'clock, to attend the funeral of
P. Kelcher, deceased.

MERCHANTS from country and city
will please remember the large dry goods sale this morning at L. Kahn & Co.'s, 404 Main street, when a large lot of goods will be disposed of.

Tompkins, who was killed at the corner of Fourth and Jefferson, on Monday evening, had been in no less than three or four difficulties during that afternoon previous to the encounter which resulted in his death.

ATTENTION, HAMILTON GUARDS!—The
members of the company are requested to meet at their armory this morning at half-past seven o'clock, to attend the funeral of Patrick Kelcher, a late member of the Tompkins Zouaves. By order of the Captain.

The Union Democracy will give a grand barbecue at Port Royal, Henry county, on Thursday, the 26th inst. Col.
Holt, Rousseau, Harlin, and Haup-piant brass band will be present. Pre-sions for everybody, and everybody must come. The girls and boys will expect it of em.

ATTENTION, SUMPTER GRAYS!—The members of the company are notified to meet at their armory, in full uniform, this morning at 7 o'clock, to attend the funeral of Patrick H. Kelcher, late member of the Tompkins Zouaves. By order of the Captain.

W. ELY, O. S.

UNION MEETING IN THE FIFTH WARD.—
The Union voters of the Fifth ward are requested to meet at the Washington Engine-house this (Wednesday) evening, the 24th inst., at 8 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for the Board of Aldermen, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of W. F. Pettit.

RESIGNATION OF THE STATE GUARD.—We
stated in our Sunday's issue that General
Buckner and Colonel Hunt, of the State Guard, had resigned. The Yeoman says, in addition to the above, that Capt. Linsey and Lieuts. Burnley and Brown, of the Governor's Guard of that city, have also resigned. General Buckner's resignation was to take effect yesterday.

THE SUMPTER GUYS.—This company
chartered a steamboat and proceeded up the river some eight miles on a picnic excursion.

As they proceeded through the street
some persons, observing the "marker flag," in possession of the company, mistook it for the Confederate flag. This was a decided mistake. The company is composed of Union men, and is one of the Home Guard of our city.

General of Patrick H. Kelcher.

The Tompkins Zouaves, of which Patrick H. Kelcher was a member, and who lost his life by an accident, on the evening of the 22d of July, invite the companies of the Home Guard to attend his funeral from their armory, on the corner of Main and Ninth streets, on the morning of the 24th, at 9 o'clock.

A SPY.—A man named G. N. Barbour, formerly a steamboatman, has been arrested in Memphis, and lodged in jail on suspicion
of being a spy.

The Memphis Bulletin, of the 22d, says Gov. Jackson, of Missouri, arrived in that city on Monday en route to Richmond, Virginia.

A KENTUCKY SOLDIER SHOT.—The Richmond Whig, of the 17th, says:

Yesterday afternoon about half-past two o'clock W. D. Wilson, a volunteer from Louisville, Kentucky, was shot by a comrade named George W. Bowman. Both of them were members of the Davis Rangers, Captain Fitzhugh, from Louisville. Yesterday morning a guard was detailed to come to the city to arrest absentees and take them back to the camp. In passing up Main street the guard, among whom was Bowman, observed Wilson in front of Dickin-
son's hat store, and on approaching him,
he drew a knife and defied the guard, whereupon Bowman drew his pistol and fired, the ball entering the right breast and killing a mortal wound.

PROBABLE MURDER.—Two brothers-in-law, named James Rose and James Gess, the latter of whom lived on the west side of the river, opposite the island, and between whom an old grudge existed, had a collision with each other on Saturday night, in which Rose cut Gess in the bowels with a knife, wounding him, it is supposed fatally.
About one o'clock the next morning he went in search of Rose, whom he found at the E. & C. R. R., near where it crosses the canal. He was brought to the city and was committed by Justice Peppers to jail to await examination this morning. Both parties are said to have been under the influence of whisky.—Terre Haute Express.

THE ADVANTAGE OF STUTTERING.—A young author (we will not mention name)
has the lining of his hat completely blackened with ink. The wonder was how the spots could have got there, because authors do not generally carry their ink-stained hats, when a wag present,
who stammered (and if he hadn't stammered,
he could not have made the joke), suggested that "probably it might be the result of th-th-thinking."

NO EMBARCO!—THE NASHVILLE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE AND GLEANER, of this city, to the subscriber, throughout Kentucky, and other portions of the United States, subscribers in the city, if they prefer it, call for their paper at the office of J. H. MONTGOMERY,
No. 223 Third Street.

SHOEMAKERS, ATTENTION!—At 2 o'clock p.m., will be sold, at L. Kahn & Co.'s, 404 Main street, shoemakers' tools of all descriptions, from a shop working fifty hands,
the whole to be closed out without reserve.
The tools have been somewhat used. Great chances for our shoemakers. Terms cash.

John Holmes (f. m. c.) drunk and disorderly conduct; bail in $100 for three months.

Com'th by L. Bauer vs Peter Moser, assault and battery; dismissed.

P. Gillen, drunk and disorderly; discharged.

Roger McDermott, drunk and destroying property of E. Laibson; bail in $100 to answer.

Joh Holmes (f. m. c.) drunk and disorderly conduct; bail in $100 for three months.

DEAD.—John F. Morgan, a well known printer of Memphis, died of consumption
on Saturday morning.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY.—Last night a new military company organized in the Second ward named "Dent Guards," in honor of our excellent Chief of Police.
The members are all sober, steady men, and will prove to be an excellent company.
The following officers were elected: Captain—
Jesse Rose; First Lieutenant—Jas.
White; Second Lieutenant—W. H. Hagan;
Third Lieutenant—S. S. Leatherman; First
Sergeant—B. Dearing; Second Sergeant—
Charles Winkler; Third Sergeant—M.
O'Connor; Fourth Sergeant—Wm. Hanna;
Fifth Sergeant—H. W. Stager. A few more good Union names are wanted to fill up the ranks.

SWIMMING SCHOOL AT THE CATHOLIC IN-STITUTE.—The Cincinnati Commercial gives us a sensational item not at all connected with the war. It seems that in Cincinnati there is a Catholic Institute, which possesses a tank in which there is now a great deal of swimming. In this tank there is a sort of amphibious man, whose duties we should be very watchful over these matters.
St. Louis Democrat, of Monday.

CAMP KNOX.—There are at this camp several companies. The regiment has not yet been mustered into service or fully organized, but no doubt will be next week, and the companies furnished with their uniforms and arms. They are learning the drill very fast, and now make a very handsome appearance when in dress parade. We are of the opinion that when uniformed and armed this will be one of the finest regiments in the State. The staff officers, no doubt, will be appointed soon.

DEPRESSING OCCURRENCE.—A MAN ACCI-DENTALLY KILLED.—On Saturday last, Mr.
Joseph Martin, an old resident of Kenton county, was engaged in sky-larking with his nephew, Mr. Albert Martin, near the residence of the former in Taylor's Mill, about six miles from Covington. They were playing with a cord wood stick, which the nephew tossed to his uncle, and the latter endeavored to catch, when it slipped from his fingers, and the sharp point struck him near the temple, inflicting a wound, though seeming to be but a small
bruise externally, probably broke some blood vessel, producing hemorrhage of the brain,
of which he died a few hours afterward.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn
from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James
Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq.,
of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanes-
ville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-
two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford
county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner
soon after the bombardment of Baltimore
by the British. She was crossing the Bay
of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding
tourists, when the ship of the British
Admiral took the entire party prisoners
of war. They were held for several days,
until the gentlemen of the party were
released on a parole under a flag of truce.

Carter & Buchanan,
DEALERS IN
GARDEN AND GRASS SEEDS
AND MANUFACTURERS OF Agricultural Implements,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

TELEGRAPHIC.

New York, July 23.—A spectator of the battle of Bull's Run say the single cause of the panic was a charge by a large body of cavalry, followed by the tensers of a strong force between the Burn and Centreville. When General McDowell found that his reserve was on the retreat, it was too late to counteract the mistake, and he then commanded the main body to fall back, which it did quietly and in good order. The men who had been fighting all day without water and food were in a state of complete exhaustion.

A spectator, an Englishman who was present at the Crimean battles, says their fighting had been of the most splendid kind. Such charges as the Fire Zouaves and the Sixty-ninth Irish Regiments made, he had not seen at Inkermann or the Alma.

The following despatch from the Secretary of War has just been received by the Union Defense Committee of this city, dated Washington, July 22:

"In reply to your telegram, I will say cheer our friends to active exertions, that we may speedily retrieve our misfortune. We are making most vigorous efforts to concentrate a large and irresistible army at this point, and regiments are now arriving.

The works on the south bank of the Potowmack are being well manned. The capitol is safe.

(Signed) "SIMON CAMERON."

New York, July 23.—A dispatch says the Seventy-first Regiment had seventy-five killed, two hundred wounded, and two hundred taken prisoner.

WASHINGTON, July 23, A. M.—Later accounts show the number of our killed is much less than supposed. Official lists are preparing as rapidly as possible.

Colonel Marston, of New Hampshire, lost an arm; Colonel Lamon was slightly wounded. Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island, was in the thickest of the battle, and made a gallant appearance.

The regiments which have suffered the most are the Fire Zouaves, the Sixty-ninth, of New York, the Connecticut First, and Massachusetts First and Eighth.

A great number of members of Congress and civilians were on the field, and their flight added to confusion.

The number of our troops actually engaged in the contest did not exceed 20,000.

A special to the Commercial Advertiser says: Major Harris left with a flag of truce to-day to recover the body of Col. Corcoran.

The Assistant Surgeon of Centreville Hospital says that the killed and wounded will not exceed 600.

Centreville was occupied last night by the Virginia cavalry and the scouts stretched to Fairfax Court-house. They were very industriously engaged in picking up knapsacks, canteens, &c., on the road.

The rebels are on horseback. One of them shot was a captain of a company of rebels at Mexico, named Moultrie. Fully 7,000 troops are stationed at different points on the North Missouri Railroad. It is reported that large bodies of rebels from Smith, East Missouri, are marching on Pilot Knob, the southern terminus of the Iron Mountain Railroad, and that Colonel Bland, stationed at that point, has sent reinforcements.

Washington, July 23.—Senate—On reopening its doors, the Senate adjourned.

Mr. Stevens, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill providing additional revenue for defraying the expenses of the Government and maintaining the public credit by the assessment of a direct tax and internal duties. Referred to Committee of the Whole.

Adjourned.

HALIFAX, July 23.—The Arabia, from Liverpool, the 13th, and Queenstown the 14th, arrived this afternoon.

Prince Napoleon and wife would sail from Lisbon the 8th for New York.

The Archbishop of Ferrara, Cardinal Vassalli, is likely to succeed to the Papal Chair in case of the Pope's death.

The Sultan of Turkey has dismissed his Seraglio, and retains only one wife.

New York, July 23.—The First regiment of Sibley's brigade left yesterday. Another regiment of this brigade will leave this afternoon.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the commanding officers on the Potowmack yesterday evening.

He reports that the field was clear, and no enemy in sight.

The General and Secretary of War are vigorously at work organizing a powerful army.

Within the last six hours over 6,000 fresh men, with a number of batteries of artillery, have been accepted. A number of regiments have arrived every day, and will bring immense reinforcements to the national Capital. Ten new regiments will be in Baltimore by this evening. The reinforcements from every quarter have been most gratifying and truly patriotic.

Colonel Gristein, of the Pennsylvania Twenty-sixth Regiment, returned to the battle field after eleven o'clock on Sunday night and brought off six pieces of artillery, which he delivered to the

